

Christmas lunch

Friday 11th December 2015

We had a pleasant Christmas lunch at the Pendley Manor hotel. It was nice to have the opportunity to chat about things in general with our friends and the time certainly went by very quickly. Colin was thanked for all the hard work he puts into running the group and Erica presented with flowers to thank her for all the times she has allowed her home to be used for our meetings.

